IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask for a copy of your driver's license or other identifying documents.

YOUR DEPOSIT ACCOUNT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

AGREEMENT - These terms govern the operation of this account unless varied or supplemented in writing. Terms and conditions specific to your account, including interest rates, fees, and other terms applicable to the specific type of account you hold with us, are set forth separately in the initial account materials provided to you at the time you open your account. Unless it would be inconsistent to do so, words and phrases used in this document should be construed so that singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular. As used in this form, the words "we," "our," or "us" mean the financial institution and the words "you" or "your" mean the account holder(s). This account may not be transferred or assigned without our written consent. Much of our relationship with our deposit customers is regulated by state and federal law, especially the law relating to negotiable instruments, the law regulating the methods of transferring property upon death and the rights of surviving spouses and dependents, the law pertaining to estate and other succession taxes, the law regarding electronic funds transfer, and the law regarding the availability of deposited funds. This body of law is too large and complex to be reproduced here.

The purpose of this form is to:

- (1) summarize the rules applicable to the more common transactions;
- (2) establish rules to govern transactions or circumstances which the law does not regulate; and
- (3) establish rules for certain events or transactions which the law already regulates but permits variation by agreement. We may permit some variations from this standard agreement, but any such variations must be agreed to in writing either on our signature card for the account or in some other written form.

LIABILITY - Each of you agrees, for yourself (and the person or entity you represent if you sign as a representative of another) to the terms of this account and the schedule of charges that may be imposed. You authorize us to deduct these charges as accrued directly from the account balance. You also agree to pay additional reasonable charges we may impose for services you request which are not contemplated by this agreement. Each of you also agrees to be jointly and severally liable for any account deficit resulting from charges or overdrafts, whether caused by you or another authorized to withdraw from this account, and the costs we incur to collect the deficit including, to the extent permitted by law, our reasonable attorneys' fees. We may refuse to follow any of your instructions if we think they are illegal or potentially harmful to us. We may also take or require other security measures to protect us from any losses we may suffer if we follow your instructions. You agree to pay us back for any damages and losses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees) that we may suffer if we take action on your (or what appears to be your) oral, written, or electronic instructions.

DEPOSITS - Any items, other than cash, accepted for deposit (including items drawn "on us") will be given provisional credit only until collection is final (and actual credit for deposits of, or payable in, foreign currency will be at the exchange rate in effect on final collection in U.S. dollars). Subject to any other limitations, interest will be paid only on collected funds, unless otherwise provided by law. We are not responsible for transactions initiated by mail or outside depository until we actually record them. All transactions received after our "daily cut off time" on a business day we are open, or received on a day in which we are not open for business, will be treated and recorded as if initiated on the next following business day that we are open.

WITHDRAWALS - Unless otherwise clearly indicated on the account records, any one of you who signs this form including authorized signers, may withdraw or transfer all or any part of the account balance at any time on forms approved by us. Each of you (until we receive written notice to the contrary) authorizes each other person signing this form to endorse any item payable to you or your order for deposit to this account or any other transaction with us. We may charge your account for a check even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless we have received written notice of the postdating in time to give us a reasonable opportunity to act. The fact that we may honor withdrawal requests which overdraw the finally collected account balance does not obligate us to do so, unless required by law. Withdrawals will first be made from collected funds, and we may, unless prohibited by law or our written policy, refuse any withdrawal request against uncollected funds, even if our general practice is to the contrary. We reserve the right to refuse any withdrawal or transfer request which is attempted by any method not specifically permitted, which is for an amount less than any minimum withdrawal requirement, or which exceeds any frequency limitation. Even if we honor a nonconforming request, repeated abuse of the stated limitations (if any) may eventually force us to close this account. We will use the date a transaction is completed by us (as opposed to the day you initiate it) to apply the frequency limitations. On interest-bearing accounts other than time deposits, we reserve the right to require at least seven days' written notice before any withdrawal or transfer. Withdrawals from a time deposit prior to maturity or prior to the expiration of any notice period may be restricted and may be subject to penalty. See your notice of penalties for early withdrawal.

OWNERSHIP OF ACCOUNT AND BENEFICIARY

DESIGNATION - You intend these rules to apply to this account depending on the form of ownership and beneficiary designation, if any, specified on page 1. We make no representations as to the appropriateness or effect of the ownership and beneficiary designations, except as they determine to whom we pay the account funds. Individual Account - is owned by one person. Joint Account - With Survivorship (And Not As Tenants In Common) - is owned by two or more persons. Each of you intend that upon your death the balance in the account (subject to any previous pledge to which we have consented) will belong to the survivor(s). If two or more of you survive, you will own the balance in the account as joint tenants with survivorship and not as tenants in common. Joint Account - No Survivorship (As Tenants In Common) - is owned by two or more persons, but none of you intend (merely by opening this account) to create any right of survivorship in any other person. We encourage you to agree and tell us in writing of the percentage of the deposit contributed by each of you. This information will not, however, affect the "number of signatures" necessary for withdrawal. Revocable Trust Account - If two or more of you create such an account, you own the account jointly with survivorship. Beneficiaries acquire the right to withdraw only if: (1) all persons creating the account die, and (2) the beneficiary is then living. If two or more beneficiaries are named and survive the death of all persons creating the account, such beneficiaries will own this account in equal shares, without right of survivorship. Any such beneficiary may withdraw all or any part of the account balance. The person(s) creating this account type reserve the right to: (1) change beneficiaries, (2) change account types, and (3) withdraw all or part of the deposit at any time.

Corporate, Partnership, and other Organizational Accounts - We will usually require a separate authorization form designating the person permitted and conditions required for withdrawal from any account in the name of a legal entity such as a partnership, corporation, or other organization. We will honor such authorization according to its terms until it is amended or terminated in writing by the governing body of such organization.

STOP PAYMENTS - You may make stop payment requests to us by phone or in writing. We must receive your request in time to give us a reasonable opportunity to act on it before our stop payment cut off time, defined as prior to presentation of the item to AIG Bank for payment. If your stop payment request is made over the phone, we must receive confirmation in writing from you within 14 days of that request or we will remove the stop payment. To be effective, your stop payment order must precisely identify the number, date and amount of the item, and the payee. Our stop payment cut off time is one hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which we receive the item. Additional limitations on our obligation to stop payment are provided by law. You may stop payment on any item drawn on your account whether you sign the item or not, if you have an equal or greater right to withdraw from this account than the person who signed the item. A release of the stop payment request may be made only by the person who initiated the stop payment.

AMENDMENTS AND TERMINATION - From time to time we may amend any term of this agreement upon giving you reasonable notice in writing or by any other method permitted by law, including, in appropriate circumstances, posting notice in our building or on our website www.AIGBank.com. We may also close this account at any time upon reasonable notice to you and tender of the account balance personally or by mail. Notice from us to you one of you is notice to all of you.

STATEMENTS - You must examine the statement provided to you by AIG Bank, the only legal statement of this account, with "reasonable promptness." If you discover (or reasonably should have discovered) any unauthorized payments or alterations, you must promptly notify us of the relevant facts. If you fail to do either of these duties, you will have to either share the loss with us, or bear the loss entirely yourself (depending on whether we used ordinary care and, if not, whether we substantially contributed to the loss). The loss could be not only with respect to items on the statement but other items forged or altered by the same wrongdoer. You agree that the time you have to examine your statement and report to us will depend on the circumstances, but will not, in any circumstance, exceed a total of 30 days from when the statement is first made available to you. You further agree that if you fail to report any unauthorized signatures, alterations, forgeries or any other errors in your account within 60 days of when we make the statement available, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and the loss will be entirely yours. This 60 day limitation is without regard to whether we exercised ordinary care. The limitation in this paragraph is in addition to that contained in the first paragraph of this section.

DIRECT DEPOSITS - If, in connection with a direct deposit plan, we deposit any amount in this account which should have been returned to the Federal Government for any reason, you authorize us to deduct the amount of our liability to the Federal Government from this account or from any other account you have with us, without prior notice and at any time, except as prohibited by law. We may also use any other legal remedy to recover the amount of our liability.

TEMPORARY ACCOUNT AGREEMENT - If this option is checked on the account records, this is a temporary account agreement. Each person who signs this signature card (except as indicated to the contrary on the account records) may transact business on this account. However, we may at some time in the future restrict or prohibit further use of this account if you fail to comply with the requirements we have imposed within a reasonable time.

SET-OFF - You each agree that we may (without prior notice and when permitted by law) set off the funds in this account against any due and payable debt owed to us now or in the future, by any of you having the right of withdrawal, to the extent of such persons' or legal entity's right to withdraw. If the debt arises from a note, "any due and payable debt" includes the total amount of which we are entitled to demand payment under the terms of the note at the time we set off, including any balance the due date for which we properly accelerate under the note. This right of set-off does not apply to this account if: (a) it is an Individual Retirement Account or other tax-deferred retirement account, or (b) the debt is created by a consumer credit transaction under a credit card plan, or (c) the debtor's right of withdrawal arises only in a representative capacity. We will not be liable for the dishonor of any check when the dishonor occurs because we set off a debt against this account. You agree to hold us harmless from any claim arising as a result of our exercise of our right of set-off.

FACSIMILE SIGNATURES - You authorize us, at any time, to charge you for all checks, drafts, or other orders, for the payment of money, that are drawn on us regardless of by whom or by what means the facsimile signature(s) may have been affixed so long as they resemble the facsimile signature specimen on page 1 of this agreement, or that are filed separately with us, and contain the required number of signatures for this purpose.

AUTHORIZED SIGNER (Individual Accounts Only) - An authorized signer is someone you designate to conduct transactions on your behalf, but does not have any ownership or rights at death unless named as a Revocable Trust beneficiary.

RESTRICTIVE LEGENDS - We are not required to honor any restrictive legend on checks you write unless we have agreed to the restriction in a writing signed by an officer of the financial institution. Examples of restrictive legends are "must be presented within 90 days" or "not valid for more than $1,000.00".

CD ACCOUNTS AUTOMATICALLY RENEW - Unless we notify you in writing of a different term for renewal before a maturity date, each renewal term will be the same as this original one beginning on the maturity date (except Jumbo CD, which are single maturity. Interest on Jumbo CD accounts will not accrue after maturity.)

You must notify us in writing or within a ten day grace period after the maturity date if you do not want this account to automatically renew.

Interest earned during one term that is not withdrawn during or immediately after that term is added to principal for the renewal term.

The rate for each renewal term will be determined by us on or just before the renewal date. You may call us on or shortly before the maturity date and we can tell you what the interest rate will be for the next renewal term. On accounts with terms longer than one month, we will remind you in advance of the renewal and tell you when the rate will be known for the renewal period.
